A Farm That is a Farm.

THIS FARM is situated in the handsomest section of our fair State, within a short distance of the Chicago and North Western Railroad depot, bordering on a small lake of the water, with bold and beautiful shores, some miles half in length and three-fourths of a mile in width. The owner, on account of ill health, is obliged to give up farming business, and will therefore give any one who has the means, a chance to purchase a princely, easy and reasonable terms, and at a great bargain. Said farm contains 480 acres, whereof about 200 on the 30th. 70 acres of wheat were raised on the last year and yielded 25 bushels per acre, which is necessary to any in reference to the quality of and on regards buildings—dwellings, barns, sheep sheds, &c. &c., they are all that can be desired.

 The farm, the orchard is very large and contains a very description of fruit, and there are 7 miles on said farm.
 This is undoubtedly the best chance offered in to procure a splendid farm. For further particulars, apply to the sole agent,
